

free writing competition,
open to anyone, of any age

Run by Watchet churches, submissions should be no more than 1,000 words, and can be prose or in poetic form. The theme is ‘What has God done for me this year?’

The story you are telling must be based on a real event which happened in the 18 months from September 2017 to January 2019.

Your submissions will be judged by a panel of four, including a journalist and a published author, and the 30 best entries will be compiled into a book, called ‘Where is God Anyway’, to be published in time to give away at the 2019 Watchet Summertime Week.

First prize, awarded to the story the judges feel best exemplifies the theme, is a £30 gift voucher for Under The Rainbow Christian bookshop, Minehead

All 30 authors whose stories are chosen to go into the book, will receive a free advance copy of the completed book, which will be published on KDP and available worldwide via Amazon.

Closing date for entries is 5pm on February 28th, 2019 and submissions should be emailed to

whereisgodanyway@yahoo.com

Or taken handed in at The Sanctuary, Watchet on Friday evenings between 5pm-6:30pm

Upon receipt of your email we will send you a terms and conditions form, which must be completed before we can accept your entry

All entries shall become the property of Watchet Baptist Church. Full credit will be given to authors included in the completed book and any monies raised from the future sale of the book will be donated to charities working
