Sharing Hope this Easter

In last Sunday's service, Andy and Evie were talking about how we might share hope with those around us this Easter time (Romans 15:13). A couple of ideas that you might find useful, especially with children and young people are listed here...

- 'Inspiring Hope' videos: 2 minute messages of hope recorded by Andy's team at the Diocese are all available on Youtube (https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ZTWTbxx7l7Q&list=PLvYduF4WrcIBb1_XwsYiROSG8JlyHtojq) Why not share them on social media or send the link to a friend?

- Hope messages for Facebook: If you created a Hope is... message last Sunday we'd love to receive it and use it to flood our Facebook page feed with messages of hope in the lead up to Easter. Send to Andy by whatsapp or email please - and if you're a FB user look out for the results!

- Share the Easter story with families: Have you seen the Bible Chat Mat resources, designed to help families explore the Bible together? They are free to download & print and there are 3 that relate to the Easter story. Why not share them with a family you know?

- Sanctuary Display: This week we're putting a large Easter scene inside the glass doors at The Sanctuary for neighbours and passers by to see, and we'd love to fill the scene with 'flowers' on Easter Sunday. Not real flowers but rather paper, fabric or knitted ones! Could you help make some and get them to us by Good Friday? If you need ideas let Ruth & Andy know. We're also hoping to put a large wooden cross in the festival field at Parsonage Farm.

- Easter Services online: Our Palm Sunday and Easter Sunday services will be on Youtube at 6pm. Why not share the link with friends and family and invite them to join us? There will also be some reflections appearing during the week too that will be worth a watch as we journey to Easter Day.

Do share any of your ideas and stories of sharing hope - we'd love to hear them - and lastly let's take time to pray for our friends, family and neighbours that they may know the living hope of Jesus Christ this Easter!
